

REPORTS

An interactive session with the resource person of Gandhian Fellowship (Piramal foundation) was conducted on 8th December 2023 at the department. The program objective is to shape the carrier of forestry students towards community development and providing exposures on rural livelihood and holistic development of the society. First, HOD of the department Prof. K K Chandra welcomed to the external resource person and participating students. On the event Mr. Nasir Hasan, of Gandhian Fellowship, Kolkata was the resource person and departmental alumni Mr. Komal Jaisawal, expert community development delivered lecture to the students. Both the experts interacted students with belief” Be the change you wish to see in the world” with insights of different fellowship programs and guided for application procedures and selection procedures. With the game, they identified the students strength and their weakness and based on the students hobby, they pointed out carrier options for the students. Prof. S. C. Tiwari also addressed to the student on the occasion. Dr. Bhavana Dixit and Dr. Gunjan Patil, faculty members of the department coordinated the program. In this program students of B.Sc. VII semesters and Research scholars participated.

