GURU GHASIDAS VISHWAVIDYALAYA (GGV)

Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya (GGV), a central university of India located in Bilaspur, Chhattisgarh, was established under the central universities act 2009, No. 25 of 2009. It was inaugurated on June 16, 1983, following its establishment by an act of the state legislative assembly. GGV is an active member of the association of Indian universities and association of commonwealth universities. Situated in a socially and economically challenged area, the university is appropriately named to honor the great Satnami Saint Guru Ghasidas (born in 17th century), who championed the cause of the downtrodden and waged a relentless struggle against all forms of social evils and injustice prevailing in the society. The university is a residential institution, having its jurisdiction spread over Bilaspur revenue division of the state of Chhattisgarh. The Vishwavidyalaya campus is spread over an area of approx. 655 acres. The campus is located 5 Km away from the main town. The garland of ornamental trees and ponds crowns the site. Garden, meadows, trees and shrubs which makes it more attractive.
