Rural Technology and Social Development

Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya, Bilaspur (C.G.)

1.3.1 Department integrates cross cutting issues relevant to Environment, Human value, and professional ethics

1. List of courses in the curriculum with description

2. Selective syllabus relevant to the cross cutting issues

S.No.	Course name	Description
1.	Environmental Education	Environment: This courses deals with cross cutting issues like environment pollution, its prevention, global warming, climate changes, desertification, deforestation, conservation. It also focuses on the scientific dimensions of various environmental issues and also enhances knowledge on the value of natural resources, various aspects of environmental issues and its causes, effects and possible solutions and suggestion to overcome environmental issues and to safeguard the environment.
2.	Rural Social Structure and Planning	Human Values and Professional Ethics: Imparting knowledge on rural system, personality development and the various schemes available to develop the ideas and policies.
3.	Rural Health Care	Human values: Health education plays very important role in community hygiene. To prevent illness and have positive health, attitude, correct and complete knowledge of health is necessary.
4.	Innovation, Appraisal and Action for Rural Development	Professional ethics: This course will help to students to analyze the impact of various social issues by collecting data from social survey based on questionnaire and the interview schedule. The result of evaluation helps to take decision with respect to resolve the issues in turn improve the society.
5.	Research Methodology and Ethics	Research ethics provide guidelines for the responsible conduct of research in addition, it educates and monitors students/scholars conducting research to ensure a high ethical standard. The following ethical principles follow including Honesty, Integrity, Carefulness, Respect for Intellectual Property, Confidentiality, Human subjects, Protection, Responsible Mentoring, Openness and others. This course helps to students/scholars to conduct of research in proper manner to generate solution of social issues as well as experiment.