Vigilance Awareness Week is celebrated to raise public awareness about the need for ethics, integrity, and transparency in public life and to combat corruption. It is observed annually to encourage collective participation in fighting corruption and is held during the week in which Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's birthday, October 31st, falls. Activities focus on promoting preventive vigilance and fostering a culture of integrity among citizens, students, and public servants

- To raise awareness:

The week is dedicated to making citizens conscious of the harm caused by corruption and their role in combating it.

- To promote integrity:

It aims to spread awareness about the importance of integrity and ethical conduct in both public and private life.

- To encourage participation:

It serves as a participative initiative to bring all stakeholders together to prevent and fight corruption.

- To honour Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel:

The week is observed around October 31st, the birthday of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, who is known for his high principles and significant role in establishing India's administrative structure.
